The Journal of Human Police Policing Human Pty Ltd is now inviting submissions for its upcoming issue. We welcome abstracts and full papers across a broad range of criminal-related topics, justice, and policing in Africa. We encourage innovative, evidence-based, cross-border crimes submissions, both illegal wildlife and human trafficking, contributions that engage with social realities, policy frameworks, and creative approaches to justice.

Submission Types Accepted

Crime Research

Empirical, theoretical, or methodological articles exploring the causes, patterns, systems, or solutions to crime, with emphasis on context-specific criminal justice realities.

Community Voices

Reflective pieces, opinion articles, lived experiences, and community-based insights that highlight justice challenges or grassroots solutions. Submissions may be non-academic but must be honest, respectful, and purposeful.

Policy and Law

Scholarly articles, legal analyses, legislative critiques, and evidence-based policy recommendations addressing justice, policing, constitutional rights, and institutional reform.

Youth & Crime

Submissions exploring youth involvement in crime, both as victims and offenders, including socio-economic drivers, prevention, intervention, rehabilitation, and youth empowerment strategies.

Gender-Based Harm

Creative and analytical pieces using art as social commentary, engaging communities on justice, human rights, and gender-based issues.

Cyber & AI Crime

Research and analyses addressing criminal activity in digital spaces, including cyber fraud, data breaches, online harassment, misinformation, cybercrime, transnational crimes and implications of using AI in justice systems.

Family & Domestic Safety

Articles exploring safety, well-being, and protection within family units, covering domestic violence, child protection, elder abuse, family law, and community responses.

Economic & Workplace Crime

Submissions focusing on crimes affecting economic activities and workplaces, including fraud, corruption, labour disputes, occupational safety violations, and systemic economic crime impacting communities and institutions.

Data & Trends

Analyses of crime statistics, patterns, and trends, providing data-driven insights to inform policing, policy, and community safety.

Public Participation

Works highlighting the role of communities and citizens in shaping safety, policing, and justice through advocacy, participation, and collaborative governance.

Evidence Vault

Original data, crime archives, investigative reports, forensic analyses, and evidence-based case studies advancing transparency and accountability in the criminal justice system.

Justice Frequencies

Submissions exploring moral, ethical, and human dimensions of justice, law enforcement, and community safety, highlighting reflections and analyses that reveal deeper societal truths.

Art & Reflection

Creative expressions and reflective writings that explore justice, safety, and social issues through poetry, storytelling, visual arts, and personal narratives.

Training & Resources

Practical tools, educational materials, and resource guides aimed at enhancing knowledge, skills, and capacity in policing, law enforcement, and criminal justice sectors.
